Middle East Travel Seminar 2009
Student Scholarships

Up to fifteen student scholarships of up to $1500 are available this year for LPTS students who need financial assistance to take the January travel seminar to Israel. This will cover about 1/3 of the total cost, which is $4000, plus departure taxes (about $375), lunches, and pocket money.

If you would like to receive this scholarship, please send me a brief note expressing your interest in receiving it as well as your commitment to travel and to complete the course requirements. If you feel you do not need the full amount, but will be helped by a partial sum, please tell me how much you will need.

Although I try to keep the costs down as much as possible while providing a fine educational experience for you, overseas travel is obviously very expensive, especially for fulltime students. This scholarship is a wonderful opportunity from which I hope you will benefit. Since it was made possible by travel seminar participants from the past, do remember to "pay it forward" after you graduate and you receive donation requests from LPTS on behalf of future students!
